

Schedule C-1 displays all lines of credit or loans made by lending institutions to either the candidate or the committee. These loans or lines of credit were used to help the candidate’s campaign and influence the election for federal office.

You have the following options in Schedule C-1: Add, Import, Duplicate, and Export.

Entering a Schedule C-1 Loan Manually:

- Once in the FEC report in Crimson Filer, select Sched C1.
- Click the + Add button.
- Enter all of the information about the loan/line of credit. Open each section, to ensure that you’re not missing any information.
- Once finished, click Save changes.
